

A Dancer's Hands

Verse

A modal	%	%	%
----------------	---	---	---

1. Something in the way she moved her fingers as we spoke that day
2. We spent the afternoon together and I listened to her life unfold
3. Now the children call her Tutu as she rock and sings them songs from her chair

A modal	%	%	%
----------------	---	---	---

1. Just a subtle movement but it seemed to melt the years away
2. She said she'd been a dancer since she was only five years old
3. And sometimes while she's singing one will ask to braid her long white hair

D modal	%	A modal	%
----------------	---	----------------	---

1. I asked if she'd been a dancer she said yes for most of my year
2. She danced for luaus and parties and when the war came she danced for the troops
3. They watch her hands so closely as she sings an old hula song song

D modal	%	A modal	%
----------------	---	----------------	---

1. When I was young I danced bands that greeted ships down by the piers
2. married a soldier, raised a family & still found time to dance with local groups
3. As she moves her hands so gracefully, the children try to follow along

Chorus

D	%	A	%
----------	---	----------	---

1. So many years have passed now, since she danced in front of any bands
2. But now her legs are worn out, it hurts so when she stands
3. She's teaching them a chant. a song of sunrise at Red Sands

Bm7	Bm/E
------------	-------------

1. She's sitting in a rocker now but she still has a dancer's hands
2. So she sits in her rocker but she still has a dancer's hands
3. Her dancing days aren't over yet she still has a dancers' hands

Bridge

D	%	A	%
----------	---	----------	---

She danced for the President and overseas with the U.S.O

D	%	Esus	E
----------	---	-------------	----------

She danced till her tired legs finally told her no_____