

Hold On

VERSE

C	Bb	F	C
---	----	---	---

Fagan's Cross over Hana Bay watches the sun's first fiery rays Rocky shores of Waikaloa the turquoise wave & white sands of Hamoa
There are those who have no shame, who'd destroy this beauty for their own gain Fagan's Cross over Hana Bay if the hills could talk what would they say

Eb	F	C	C
----	---	---	---

warm the pastures and wake a sleepy town all feel the warmth of the sun's gentle hand telling you all the while, it's what you need after all they've seen, from where they stand

---	----	---	---

It's just one man's opinion but for what it's worth there's no place finer on God's green earth
As the sunlight fills the morning air fragrance of flowers is everywhere Don't be fooled by clever lies, it's happened before a 1000 times and all the voice floating in the breeze of those who still live in our memories

than Hana in the morning with the sun shining down.
beauty in all directions anywhere you stand.
a tale of broken promises and greed the ones who are buried in the Aina, the land, what would they say

CHORUS

F	Eb	C	C
---	----	---	---

Hold on _____ Hold on to the land you love

---	----	---	---

Hold on _____ Hold on to the land _____
